

The Queenslander Pictorial.

THE CATHEDRAL OF STRASSBURG.

Strasbourg is now under occupation by the Allies. This beautiful sketch is from the design of M. J. Bouché in "L'Illustration".

THE LAST DAYS OF THE WAR

Illustration
Official photo
Copyright

A German army which failed to keep the Austrians out of the Hindenburg Line.

Austrian convicted with a rescued inhabitant of a village
recaptured
on the Silesian
Front

1918
MARCH 1
1918

"Out West Where the Skies are Brightest" Miles

The Railway Station

Post and Telegraph Office

The Rubber Factory

The Hospital

UNDER BRITISH SKIES

Watching events.

Road to the Castle.

Rail, wireless, shops.

"Early morning. We are so hungry."

Mama's Mother with breakfast at last.

Paul Farmer helps

THE VAGRANT AT HOME

Cares of Family Life in Drought
Time.

Still hungry

Dr. Farmer
photo

How the photographs were taken.
The nest 20 feet from the ground.

Hotel Bismarck, Breslau, at Breslau, Poland.

Lord Harewood, British ambassador to the United States, and his wife, Lady Harewood, standing in the grounds of the Hotel Bismarck.

A recent photograph of the late Kaiser, with the King of Saxony, standing in the grounds of the Hotel Bismarck.

Lord Harewood, British ambassador to the United States, and his wife, Lady Harewood, standing in the grounds of the Hotel Bismarck.

The late Kaiser, with the King of Saxony, standing in the grounds of the Hotel Bismarck.

WHERE PUNCHY FISH IS KING.
A road cut through dense pine in the Western district.

—T. M. Gordon photo.

MR. W. E. BROWN,
Mayor of Portland, 1913.
—Hobby Boley photo.

MRS. W. E. BROWN,
Mayor of Portland, 1913.
—Hobby Boley photo.

MR. H. THOMPSON,
President of the Greenland National Association, 1913.
—Foster photo.

AN IMPROVED FUTURE.—RIDE OF THE RAILROAD BETWEEN THE ALLEN AND OCEAN.

The tracks of the inter-city railroad lead to the Port of Copenhagen, and of the Atlantic Coast line through the Union on the left, while the Atlantic Coast line is on the right.—Foster photo.

WORK OF THE GREENLAND NATIONAL ASSOCIATION. HOW MANY HAVE COME BACK?

A group of men of the 1st Battalion (1st to 1st Battalion), and 1st to 1st Battalion, who studied for the landing for some years in London. —Foster photo. J. H. Brown, Copenhagen.

The Y.M.C.A. Headquarters at Copenhagen.

Hall of the Y.M.C.A. at Copenhagen.

